Ongoing company growth brings staffing changes:

OMG promotes seven employees to key positions in two sales divisions

Agawam, Mass. - OMG, Inc., a leading manufacturer of fasteners and building products for the commercial and residential construction industries, recently promoted several long-term employees in offices across the country to new positions. Due to significant company expansion and greater demands on OMG's sales force, Brian Wroblesky, Stephen Trites, Sean Kelly, Joe DiSanto, Andy Cleveland, Brent Kreutzer, and Corey Rohland all have been named to new positions within the company.

- Brian Wroblesky, formerly a sales representative in the Cleveland-Pittsburgh region, is now the Midwest Regional Manager for Roofing Products Sales. Among other significant accomplishments achieved in his four years at OMG, Wroblesky was named Roofing Products Salesperson of the Year for 2005.

- Stephen Trites, formerly a Roofing Products outside salesperson in Florida, has been named Southeast Regional Manager.
- Sean Kelly, another long-time employee who previously held the southeastern Roofing Products position, is now taking responsibility for the Northeast region.
- Joe DiSanto, a 20-year veteran with OMG, recently was named the new Customer Service Manager for Roofing Products. This important position had been vacant for the last two years.
- Andy Cleveland, an OMG veteran, is transitioning within Roofing Products from National Accounts to Product Management. He will work with Joe DeFilippo as OlyBond Product Manager, responsible for the sales and marketing of the OlyBond program.
- Brent Kreutzer, from OMG's FastenMaster™ Sales Division, is now the National Accounts Manager responsible for serving a broader base of customers.
- Finally, Corey Rohland, formerly a California sales representative for FastenMaster, has been promoted to Western Regional Manager.

"Because our number one asset is our people, expanding our employees' individual opportunities is of paramount importance to OMG," says Hugh McGovern, President, OMG. "As our business continues to expand, we are fortunate to have people who are willing to grow with us and take on new challenges."
